MEDICINAL.

A PRISONER FOR LIFE

Offences against the laws of health are punished rigorously and inevitably by nature. A man may break civil laws and escape punishment. But the man who transgresses nature's law of health cannot escape the penalty. Many a man is today a prisoner for life, and for a very brief life, because of his outrage of the laws upon which health is conditioned. He sits idly in his chair torn by coughing spells and gasping for breath. The handkerchief which wipes his lips shows a red stain. He is slowly wasting away.

Weak lungs, obstinate coughs, spitting of blood, weakness and emaciation are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. Thousands who have been cured by this medicine attest the fact.

Sick people are invited to consult Dr. Pierce by letter, free. All correspondence is held as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." The sole motive for substitution is to enable the dealer to make the little more profit paid on the sale of less meritorious medicines.

"Three years ago I had the grip," writes Mrs. T. H. L. of Gravelly, Marion Co., Kentucky. "It settled on my lungs, and the doctor said I had consumption. I took six bottles of 'Golden Medical Discovery,' and am thankful to say I am entirely well. You may print this letter if you see fit to do so."

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets keep the bowels in healthy activity.

VIRGINIA U. D. C. REPORT.

I, the reporter from the various States at the convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy, now in session at Wilmington, N. C., on Thursday, the following was made by the Virginia president, Mrs. W. C. N. Merchant:

Virginia—The president spoke of the recent annual division meeting which was held in Alexandria. She stated that the division was never more flourishing, several chapters stating that the primary work of the organization had been accomplished and they were now ready to respond to appeals from their less fortunate sisters. In addition to this, said the president, our veterans are not uncared for nor their widows neglected.

Mrs. James Y. Leigh, of Norfolk, rose to make a statement and to correct an error in her report of last year, in which she inadvertently failed to give credit due to one of the chapters of her State.

The Grand Division of Virginia, said the president, is composed of nearly 2,000 members, and 48 chapters. The president explained that the fact that there were two divisions in Virginia did not mean any clash in feeling, but was owing to a combination of circumstances for which neither division is responsible. She stated that a conference from the two divisions would be held looking to a union, which it was hoped would be consummated.

Friday's Wilmington Star says: "Virginia is represented by two divisions in the report of last year's convention was entirely characteristic of the 'Old Dominion' in everything that pertains to the Confederacy. The State is represented by a large delegation of cultured and very able women."

CORONATION CROWNS.

Preparations for King Edward's coronation are taking definite and costly shape. Mrs. Bradley Martin is having a tiara made in Paris at a cost of $1,500,000, and it is a replica of the tiara which shone on the head of Empress Josephine.

Queen Alexandra, not to be outdone by the resident Americans, is having her coronation diamond set in her new crown. The inclusion of this stone will make her crown the most valuable to the world, a distinction now held by the King of Portugal.

Peers are trying to outvie each other in the brilliancy of their tiaras. Lady Kilmore, one of the most beautiful women in London, the wife of the Earl of Kilmore, who was a boyhood intimate friend of the King; Lady Londonderry, the Duchess of Devonshire and the Duchess of Portland are all spending vast sums in order to embellish the coronation by a display of jewels worthy of the occasion.

Mrs. John Jacob Astor wore lately a tiara crown which was an exact reproduction of the one worn by Queen Victoria on her Jubilee day. Mrs. Clarence Mackay has one closely resembling it.

Mrs. Howard Gould has ordered from a Roman jeweler a diadem modeled after the one worn by Queen Margherita at the marriage of her son, now the King of Italy.

Mrs. Charles T. Yerkes lately traveled to Madrid to choose a model from among the royal crowns on view at the museum there. The one best suited to her features, a copy of which is now made for her, is the bandeau of precious stones worn by Queen Maria Christina at the coronation of her daughter, Queen Isabella.

HOSPITALITY OF SOUTHERN WOMEN.

The social side of the exposition at Charleston will be consistent with the reputation of that community for refined and gracious hospitality. The women's department of the exposition is under the management of Mrs. Sarah Calhoun Simmonds, a grand-niece of the great statesman, and she has for her aide all the society people of the city. At a meeting of the woman's committee on reception and entertainment, of which Mrs. Andrew Simmonds is chairman, it was agreed that an "at home" would be given once a week in the Woman's Building at the exposition grounds, to which all the commissioners and visitors to the exposition, to whom special courtesies should be extended, will be invited.

At these weekly entertainments tea grown on American soil will be served, flanked by such dishes as are peculiar to that latitude.

Besides the weekly entertainments the ladies are arranging for a number of more elaborate functions, and among the events of this order is a ball to be given to the admiral and officers of the North Atlantic squadron which has been ordered to Charleston to take part in the exposition early in December. Then, when the President comes to the exposition, on February 12, it is expected that all the beauty and chivalry of the State and the South will be there to do him honor.

The Children's Friend.

You'll have a cold this winter. Maybe you have one now. Your children will suffer too. For coughs, croup, bronchitis, grip and other winter complaints One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy. It is very pleasant to the taste and perfectly harmless. C. C. George, Winchester, Ky., writes "Our little girl was attacked with croup late one night and was so hoarse she could hardly speak. We gave her a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure. It relieved her immediately and she went to sleep. When she awoke next morning she had no signs of hoarseness or croup." For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons.

SECTIONAL BOOKCASES.

If you want the best sectional bookcase made, get the "GUNN."

Probably no line in furniture has sprung into favor so quickly as sectional bookcases, and yet it is easily explained, as the expansion system is almost a necessity to the house accumulating books. Call and inspect them.
